DEDICATION

Lillian W. Kelley

A Tribute to . . . . .

This, the fifteenth MONELISON, to Mrs. Lillian W. Kelley, beloved sponsor of the Senior Class, for we feel that her influence on each of us has been a significant part of our high school life. From the day of our entrance to the now-approaching day of graduation, we have benefited from the wisdom of her counsel and enjoyed the quality of her friendship. Because she has shared our secrets; because she has helped us over our high spots and our low spots, we pay a great tribute to Mrs. Lillian W. Kelley in our dedication to her of the 1943 MONELISON.

FOREWORD

As this year goes by another link is added to our chain of memory. This chain has been forged from the knowledge and inspiration gained through the help of our beloved and faithful faculty. They have given us a basic knowledge of the highest in education. May we in future years be a living tribute to their efforts . . .

CONTENTS · CLASSES · ACTIVITIES · SPECIALS

On December 7, 1942, with the deepest regret we bade farewell to one of our classmates, Maynard (Peck) Magann, who left to join Uncle Sam's army.

"Peck" was a good sport, athlete, and a true friend to all. His loyalty to school, home and country cannot be surpassed.

His kindness, politeness, and consideration of others stand out foremost in our memories. We, the seniors, have esteemed it an honor to be "Peck's" classmates and to have had such a friend in him.

We have all heard the phrase, "The army needs good men"—now we can feel assured that it has a good one in the person of "Peck" Magann.

Take a slap at a Jap for us who are on the home front—

Good luck, "Peck!"

CLASS HISTORY

In September of 1939, a group of one hundred three freshmen entered Madison Heights High School. We learned that Mr. Early was the new principal and that our sponsors were to be Miss Turman and Mrs. Kelley. Later, we chose Bobby Owens as president of the class, Harold Hume as vice-president, Linwood Johnson as secretary, Bob Abbitt as treasurer, and Madge Ray as representative.

After the first term, examinations were done away with, to our great pleasure.

During the sophomore year, our sponsors were Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Witcher, and Mr. Lasko. We elected class officers as follows: Edward Johnson, president; Marshall Hartless, vice-president; Linwood Johnson, secretary-treasurer, and Joyce Rhodes, Rosely Brown, and Don Smith, representatives.

We were joined by twelve students from Elon at the beginning of our junior year. We had the same sponsors that we had had the year before: Mrs. Witcher, Mrs. Kelley, and Mr. Lasko. Our class officers were: President, June Goolsby; vice-president, Eula McConnell; secretary-treasurer, Patsy McGinnis, and representatives, Edwin Bibb, Betty Ann Bryant, and Marguerite Perkins.

Eighty-three of us began our senior year, but several have already dropped out. Maynard Magann was the first boy from our class to be inducted into the service.

About six weeks after the beginning of this year, the Physical Education program was begun, to help pupils from the third through the eleventh grades become and keep physically fit.

June Goolsby is our president, Bob Abbitt our vice-president, Hannon Burford our secretary-treasurer, and Marie Roberts, Edward Johnson, Don Smith, and Jack Price our representatives. Our sponsors are Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Kelley.

The senior play "Who's Crazy Now?" was presented on December 11. The customary Junior-Senior Banquet will, of necessity, be held much earlier this year, but our last few days will be occupied with Class Day, and, as usual, the Baccalaureate and Commencement Exercises.

MARGUERITE PERKINS.

CLASS PROPHECY

Members of the radio audience—this is Marshall Hartless, your favorite news reporter, bringing you the latest news of the day!

Flash! New York—Edwin Bibb has just completed a round-the-world flight in four days. On his stop-over in England he picked up Katherine Staples, now quite a famous singer with Madge Ray's "All Girl Orchestra."

Atlanta, Georgia—Miss June Goolsby has just won the "Miss America" crown. The judges were: Fielden Tyler, now mayor of Miami, Fla.; Edward Wills, Governor of Virginia; and Bobby Owens, head of a New York model agency.

Baltimore, Md.—Mr. William Lee, formerly of Madison Heights, has been made president of Glen Martin Airplane Factory. We also have reason to believe his wife, the former Joyce Rhodes, has left for Reno.

Washington, D. C.—We understand that Don Smith, Jr., now principal of Madison Heights High School, was badly hurt last night as a result of a fall. This happened in a night club owned by Buck Tyree, while Mr. Smith was pursuing chorus girls, Clara Bell North, Lois Gilliland, and Russell Farmer.

Philadelphia, Pa.—The famous art critic, Miss Helen Peterson, will establish an art school in this city.

New York—Miss Jean Tyree, prominent five and ten heiress, has recently divorced her third husband, Nookie Harrison, manager of the Cincinnati Reds. She has been seen stepping out with that movie heart throb, Rufus Coffey.

Lynchburg, Va.—Two women Drs. of Virginia Baptist Hospital announced today that they have an operation that will cure insanity. The Drs. Phoebe Franklin and Patsy McGinnis will operate on Kenneth Whitehead tomorrow morning. He is a victim of insanity.

New York—In the week's reviews I see Miss Phyllis Ports will venture on the first step of her musical career, at the Metropolitan.

Elon, Va.—I just received word through the grapevine that Mrs. Dupont Vandervalt, former Marjorie Litchford, has recently put a new crew of apple pickers on her plantation. Among her employees are, Helen Casey, Iris Burliegh, and Esmond Brightwell.

London, England—The foremost woman foreign correspondent, Marguerite Perkins, has arrived safely in England.

Boston, Mass.—The wealthy and popular Elsie Bailey will make her debut tonight at the Copley Plaza.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—While deer hunting in the wilds of the same state, Wood Morcom was wounded in the leg by fellow huntsman, Edward Eubank, but is reported improving.

In glancing through the New York Tribune (the editor you know, is J. Hudson), I saw an article written by the Lovelorn Advisor, Erma Adams. Some of her clients were, Aileen Mann, Lois Moss, and Betty Ann Bryant.

Hollywood, Calif.—Artist, Harold Hume, has just finished his greatest masterpiece, "A Little Red School House." His models were: Ruth Woody, Mary Chumbly, and Mary Franklin.

Lynchburg, Va.—Mrs. Maynard Magann, former Frances Hudson, and Miss Doris Morris, left today on a tour of Virginia with a cooking school. Both women have become quite well known for their cooking.

Flash! Africa—General James Harlow was last seen on the sands of Africa. Yes, he's still chasing Rommel.

Dallas, Texas—Marvin Ragland, believed to be a second Arthur Murray, will open a school for dancing in that city. His assistants will be, Thelma Davis, Mary Dickerson, and Bessie Tyree.

Washington, D. C.—That well known hair stylist, Thomas Marsh, has come all the way from California to fix the hair of our First Lady—formerly Janet Price.

Chicago, Ill.—Miss Virginia Crawford has just finished her latest book. This book was written about Madison Heights, and the main characters were the outstanding citizens of that town: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wood (Mrs. Wood was formerly Elizabeth Stanley), and Louise Wright, head of the town's Home for the Homeless.

Salt Lake City, Utah—We understand that a group of boys have just won the basketball championship. The team consisted of—Lloyd White, Roger Cash, Mahlon Bryant, and Henry Morcom. We wonder why they are called the midgets.

Richmond, Va.—Well known lawyer, Jack Price, is being sued by one of his clients. Eula McConnell will act as his lawyer for the case. I'm sure they will win, because if I remember well, they both talk a lot. The judge in the case will be Raymond Wooldridge.

San Francisco—Dr. Sam Wood has just performed a delicate surgical operation on social leader Linwood Johnson. The nurses who assisted were: Misses Lorena Garrett and Frances Harrell.

Washington, D. C.—F. B. I. man, Bob Abbitt, just caught three spies single handed. This happened while Mr. Abbitt was fishing.

Des Moines, Iowa—Three lieutenants in the WAACS from Madison were sent to foreign shores today. They were Margaret Raikes, Christine Smith, and Frances May.

Denver, Col.—Draftsman Edward Johnson has just completed plans for a new skyscraper.

New York—A new Broadway show will open tonight. It is being produced by Louise Jones. The cast consists of that dramatic actress, Marie Roberts, and comedian Virginia Weir.

Atlantic City, N. J.—Two women orators were in this city today. They were Misses Helen Campbell and Evelyn Franklin.

Radio City Music Hall, N. Y.—Hannon Burford and Tommy Tabor have just opened their new radio program. The second Abbitt and Costello.

I have just received word that a new faculty has arrived at M. H. H. S. They are Hannon Davis, Shop; Betsy Hudnall, Gym; Catherine Bryant, History; Christine Coleman, Typing; Irene Brizendine, English. They were all former students of that school.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of M. H. H. S. for the year of 1942-1943, being sound of mind and body (we hope) do ordain and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

ITEM I

To M. H. H. S., We Will:

1. A gym in which to have physical ed. on rainy days so they will not disturb the classes when using the auditorium.
2. Some young teachers who are not married.
3. Senior boys who will not flirt with the teachers.
4. A stand of grass that cannot be worn down by the pupils walking on it.
5. A roof over the smoking room so the boys will not have to stand in the rain to smoke.

ITEM II

To the Faculty, We Will:

1. To Mrs. Kelley, a special dog house so she can bring him to school.
2. To Mrs. Davis, another Hartless, Bryant and Johnson to keep the Civics Class laughing.
3. To Mr. Fulcher, a group of pupils who will be as good as we were.
4. To Mr. Lasko, boys in Mechanical Drawing who will not ask for a left-hand plane to sharpen their pencils.
5. To Miss McPherson, a physical ed. class with no love bugs in it.
6. To Mrs. Stone, someone to repair the typewriters.
7. To Miss Shepherd, a special male man to bring her the mail.
8. To Mrs. Johnson, a car with extra gas to go to see her husband.
9. To Mrs. Doyle, a book on first aid, so she will not have to ask the children what to do when someone is hurt.
10. To Mrs. Arthur, swinging doors so she cannot be locked in her room.
11. To Miss Hundley, some thumb tacks to keep the posters on the wall.
12. To Mrs. Viar, a little white cat to help the fifth period Civics Class when she teaches.
13. To Mrs. Farmer, a book on dietetics, so we may have a more balanced diet.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (Continued)

ITEM III

To the Juniors, We Will:

1. Boys who will not be drafted before they graduate.
2. Enough Senior banners so they will not have to buy any more.
3. The honor of being dignified Seniors (as we were).
4. Mrs. Kelley as sponsor and Mrs. Davis as co-sponsor.

ITEM IV

To the Sophomores, We Will:

1. Miss McPherson, Mrs. Doyle, as sponsors.
2. Freedom of study hall like the Juniors and Seniors have.

ITEM V

To the Freshmen, We Will:

1. A quiet room in which the puppy lovers may sit and woo.
2. The ability to be quiet like the Seniors.
3. Miss Hundley and Mrs. Arthur as sponsors.

ITEM VI

Special Bequests:

1. A boxing ring so Charles Lane and "Skip" Ricketts can fight it out to see which one will ring the bell when "Duck" is gone.
2. To Marita Loving, a boy to take Mahlon Bryant's place.
3. To Charles Faulconer, some cigs., so he will not have to smoke people's ducks.
4. To Mary Ann Bibb, Patsy McGinnis's place as President of the J. U. G.'s.
5. To Tom Hunt, Marshall Hartless's dignity.
6. To Agnes Martin, two feet of Joyce Rhodes' height.
7. To "Speed" Gibson, a bus driver who will come by his house and get him out of bed every morning.
8. To Paul Roberts, "Duck" Smith's willingness to type.
9. To "Dick" Waters, Ed. Johnson's place as being the most athletic boy.
10. To Grace Garvin, Erma Adam's ability to flirt.

The chief object of the Varsity Club is to train and co-operate more closely with the faculty and each other, to promote good sportsmanship among your fellowman and to promote our athletics to a higher level within our school.

Our main contribution this year was presenting Maynard McGann, the first to leave our school for service, a small gold baseball as remembrance for his service.
